Albania-Serbia relations: the way forward for regional stability and integration

SAVE THE DATE

When: Tuesday 29th January 2019

Where: The Hague Centre for Strategic Studies,
Lange Voorhout 1, 2514 EA The Hague

Dear Sir/Madam,

The Hague Centre for Strategic Studies (HCSS) together with the Albanian Institute for International Studies (AIIS) and the Forum for International Relations of the European Movement in Serbia (EminS) would like to invite you to participate in an event on bilateral relations between Albania and Serbia in the framework of regional stability and integration.

This event is organized in the framework of the project: Joint Centre for Albania Relations supported by the Kingdom of the Netherlands and implemented by the Albanian Institute for International Studies (AIIS) and the Forum for International Relations of the European Movement in Serbia (EminS).

The forum will be open to interested parties both in The Hague and further afield.

If you are available and would like to attend, please send an e-mail to connordunlop@hcss.nl to confirm your participation.

Further details on the programme of the Conference will be forwarded to you in the coming weeks.
