European Movement in Serbia 3/2019

We Need More than Minimum Standards of Independence of Judiciary

The main message of International conference “Changing the Constitution on the Way to the EU: What would proposed amendments bring to the judiciary?” is that the Constitution won't bring necessary quality to a young democracy such as Serbian, if the change of Constitution is based on accepting and adopting only the bare minimum of the European Union's standards. The conference was held on Wednesday, June 26th in Belgrade, with domestic and foreign experts, professors and representatives of associations of judges and prosecutors participating.

Dutch Ambassador in Belgrade, Henk van den Dool, stressed the importance of providing conditions for independence of judiciary, which should be one of main goals. On the other hand, Vice President of European Movement in Serbia, Vladimir Medjak, noticed that there is no debate on constitutional changes in Serbia.
